

The following is a list of courses and/or subject areas that have been offered in the past by the host institution. Please note foreign institutions do not usually finalize course listings until the beginning of the academic year. This list will be updated online as the host institution provides additional information.

2009 Spring Semester

Course Requirement Summary
Level	Sem. Credits	Course Structure
All Levels	12 - 16	1 Internship Course 1-3 Electives

All Levels - Total Possible Credit(s): 12 - 16

1 Internship Course

Course Title: EXIN100 - International Internship
Recommended Sem Credits: 3 Contact Hours: 120
Level(s) 200
Instruction in: English
Primary Subject Area: Internships
CEA Partner Institution: Macquarie University

Description:

Internships provide students with an opportunity to gain valuable work experience within a relevant organisation, while completing their studies in Australia. The internship will be a formal part of students' Macquarie studies and they will receive academic credit. Students will Intern for between 10 hours per week for 12 weeks on the Internship project and will be assessed by visits, interviews, reports and a major assignment. Internship projects can be completed in a variety of disciplines including business administration, marketing, biomedical sciences, computer science, media, communications, finance, psychology and public relations (others not mentioned will be considered).

---

Course Title: EXIN101 - International Internship
Recommended Sem Credits: 6 Contact Hours: 240
Level(s) 200
Instruction in: English
Primary Subject Area: Internships
CEA Partner Institution: Macquarie University

Description:

Internships provide students with an opportunity to gain valuable work experience within a relevant organisation, while completing their studies in Australia. The internship will be a formal part of students' Macquarie studies and they will receive academic credit. Students will Intern for between 20 hours per week for 12 weeks on the Internship project and will be assessed by visits, interviews, reports and a major assignment. Internship projects can be completed in a variety of disciplines including business administration, marketing, biomedical sciences, computer science, media, communications, finance, psychology and public relations (others not mentioned will be considered).

1-3 Electives

Accounting and Finance
 Actuarial Studies
 Anthropology
 Applied Psychology

Asian Languages
Astronomy and Astrophysics
Australian Studies
Biochemistry
Biodiversity and Conservation
Bioinformatics
Biological Chemistry
Biology
Biotechnology
Business Administration
Business and Commerce
Business Law
Chemistry
Communications and Media Studies
Computer Science
Creative Arts
Cultural Studies
Demography
Early Childhood Studies
Economics
Education
Electronics and Communication Systems
(Telecommunications)
English
Environmental Sciences
European Languages
Geoecology
Geographic Information Science
Geology, Geophysics & Exploration Geoscience
Health
History
Human Geography
Human Resource Management
Humanities
Indigenous Studies
Information Technology and Computing
International Relations
Internships
Law
Linguistics
Marine Science
Marketing
Mathematics
Museum Studies
Music
Philosophy
Physical Geography
Physics
Politics
Population Studies
Psychology

Resource and Environmental Management
Sociology
Special Education
Speech and Hearing Science
Statistics
Women's Studies