

Global Education Solutions

Course Descriptions

Port Elizabeth, South Africa
2008 Fall Semester (Full Curriculum)

The following is a list of courses and/or subject areas that have been offered in the past by the host institution. Please note foreign institutions do not usually finalize course listings until the beginning of the academic year. This list will be updated online as the host institution provides additional information.

2008 Fall Semester

Course Requirement Summary
Level	Sem. Credits	Course Structure
All Levels	12 - 15	4-5 Electives

All Levels - Total Possible Credit(s): 12 - 15

4-5 Electives

Accounting
Advertising
Anthropology
Architectural Technology
Architecture
Biochemistry
Biokinetics
Botany
Broadcasting
Business Administration
Business Management
Ceramic Design
Chemistry
Civil Engineering
Communication
Computer Science & Information Systems
Conservation Biology
Culture
Economics
Education
Electrical Engineering
Environmental Engineering
Environmental Health
Environmental Management
Fashion Design
Financial Information Systems
Financial Planning
Fine Arts
Geographic Information Systems
Geology

Graphic Design
History
Human Movement Science
Human Resources Management
Industrial Engineering
Information Technology
Interior Design
Journalism
Language & Literature Studies
Law
Logistics
Management
Marine Biology
Marketing
Mathematics
Mechanical Engineering
Mechatronics
Media
Microbiology
Multimedia Design
Music
Nursing
Office Management & Technology
Operations Management
Pharmacy
Philosophy
Photography
Physics
Politics
Psychology
Public Administration
Public Management
Public Relations
Restoration Ecology
Social Work
Sociology
Sport & Recreation Management
Sport Management
Sport Psychology
Sport Science
Statistics
Textile Design & Technology
Tourism Management
Transportation Engineering
Urban Engineering
Water Engineering
Web Design & Management
Youth Work
Zoology